

Following the recent Combat Games Technical Directors meeting held in St Petersburg from 16th to 18th April, below you will find a comprehensive up to date overview of the upcoming Combat games this October up to date.

WAKO Sport Accord recognition and in fact current success of WAKO, was down to the foresight and vision of Ennio Falsoni, our thoughts and prayers continue to be with him and his family. Below is a picture of Ennio and Espen on their first visit to China in preparation of the first combat games in Beijing, we hope our president will be back at the helm soon.

Therefore there was a restructure within WAKO and a need to reassign posts. Roy Baker has been made technical Director for Kickboxing and will take over overall responsibility for the games coordinator and delivery.

VISA Support

For the moment RUMA and Sport Accord are still in discussion with the government we cannot give the final answer. It appears at this time that the officials and athletes in quota will receive a special visa exemption. This will be confirmed following the registration completion date.

However as a general rule, Visa is a necessary requirement for a foreign citizens who want to visit Russia. Depending on the purpose of the travel, there are 5 types of visas: private, diplomatic, business, transit, visa for temporary residence. Visa is issued by the Russian Embassy or Consulate in your country. Visa applications can be sent by post or submitted personally.

Visa is issued no later than 20 working days after receipt of the application in case other is prescribed by international treaties signed by the Russian Federation. The day of application is defined as a day when all required documents have been properly filled in and submitted. Should a foreign state issue a longer visa obtaining period for Russian citizens, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation may prolong the issue period for foreign citizens according to the international principle of mutuality under international agreements.

Attention!

To participants of the World Combat Games-2013 and members of the official delegations, registered on the System by IF (WAKO), visa support will be provided in accordance with the facilitating visa program. Filling in the Migration Card on arrival to Russian Federation.

Before passing passport control at the point of entry into the Russian Federation Test Events' participant must fill in a Migration Card. Migration Card form will be given out on the airplane (train) or directly at the point of entry into the Russian Federation.

The entry part (A) and exit part (B) of the Migration Card should be filled in personally by the foreign citizen using Russian or Latin letters according to the passport, in legible block letters, without mistakes or corrections, strictly in the correspondent blanks, using ink or ballpoint pen in black, blue or purple. A Migration Card must be filled in for each foreign citizen, irrespective of their age. (Detailed instructions are given on the back of each migration card in Russian and English languages).

Under the heading "Name of host person or company: locality", write "World Combat Games-2013 Organizing Committee".

It is Vital you provide all the information as detailed in the attached spreadsheet, this information MUST be accurate.

Ambassador

It is a pleasure to again repeat the message that Bill "Super foot" Wallace will be the Kickboxing ambassador during the Games period. It is a huge motivation for us that the legend himself will be together with us, motivate us and to inspire us. Bill Wallace will follow the ambassador program and I will later on outline the specific content this program.

Disqualification!

According to WAKO protocol; WAKO members can participate for WAKO exclusively. Any participation in other dissident groups is not allowed. If, by any chance, an athlete participate in a dissident activities he/she will automatically be disqualified from the games and further participation in WAKO as defined in our rules and regulations.

Anti-Doping – Fair Play!

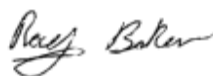

There will be executed doping tests and Sportaccord Anti-Doping Unit together with WADA and Russia Anti-Doping Unit will enforce strict rules. Please make sure, as always, to be in line with WADA rules. Avoid any rapid weight reduction methods but follow methods that take care of health and security. It is vitally important that coaches understand their responsibility towards the athlete.
